

Tell the broadcasters that if they provided a better product they could compete with satellite radio. It is unfair to limit free trade and competition by imposing unfair limits on satellite radio. I'm paying for this service for a reason--I'd rather hear good content than obnoxious commercials, Please speak up for free speech.